FOUR NEW BOOKS FOR SALE

Aug 2012

The Trust is pleased to promote the following 4 new books which have just been added to our 'Books for Sale' listing. All are strongly recommended and your purchase from our website helps us with our work on your behalf.

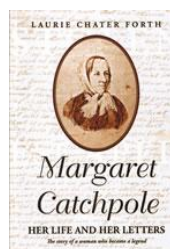

The Voice from the Garden is the love story of Pamela Cobbold and Charles Hambro set against the backdrop of the Great War and the social and economic change which followed. This compelling biographical story is sympathetically told by Jane Dismore. (The first ten purchasers will receive author-signed copies).

Ipswich, Lost Inns, Taverns and Public Houses by well-known photographer, David Kindred is a painstakingly researched and illustrated treatise on the town's hostelries during the heyday of Cobbold brewing. There's hardly a page goes by without a Cobbold or Tolly Cobbold image.

Margaret Catchpole – Her Life and Her Letters is written by Laurie Chater Forth in Australia and draws on Margaret's actual letters. Nobody is better qualified to lead us through them, and this book is a 'must' for anyone interested in the real life behind this most enduring tale.

A Farming Legacy 1910 – 2010 is the story of the first hundred years of the Felix Thornley Cobbold Agricultural Trust told by Rosalind Thomas who will be familiar to readers of 'To Suffolk with Love', her biography of Felix, one of Suffolk's great benefactors.
